ECONOMY FIGHT ON IN N. J. SENATE

Democrats Hope to Get Control by Defection of Senator White.

LOCAL OPTION BILL EXPECTED TO PASS

So Far Legislature Has Done Little Except Provide for Vote on Suffrage.

Trenton, Feb. 28 .- The crucial point in this session of the Legislature will be reached to-night when the eigh economy and efficiency bills come up in the Senate for third reading and final passage. To-night's session will begin the eighth week, and thus far both the Republicans and Democrats concede iblicans and Democrats concede it has been a barren session.

The only important proposition that as gone through both houses is the esselution providing for a special election to pass upon an amendment to the enstitution which would allow equal few are unimportant.

The economy and efficiency bills, however, are the most important that have been introduced. Following their ubmission by the commission to in-estigate the subject of economy and ficiency they were introduced in the enate by President Edge. Later they were amended in vital parts, and now the Democrats claim that they are no longer the commission's bills, but are longer the commission's bills, but are the product of the Republican party. It is conceded that in their present form the bills will arouse the united epposition of the Democrats. There are ten Democrats in the Senate and eleven Republicans, but it is stated that Senator Blanchard White, of Burlington, will take a stand with the minority members to night against the urlington, will take a stand with the inority members to-night against the mended bills. This will place the emocrats in control of the Senate. Senator White refuses to be quoted on the subject, but it is known that the remarked the other day that he rould not allow any bills that were arsh on Governor Fielder to go was found to the bills as they are the famous Delmonth of the bills as they are the famous Delmonth of the bills as they are the famous Delmonth of the bills as they are the famous Delmonth of the bills as they are the famous Delmonth of the bills as they are the famous Delmonth of the bills as they are the famous Delmonth of the bills as they are the famous Delmonth of the bills as they are the subject, but it is known that the subject that Jumping to Platform.

James Hill, a collector for the Brooklyn Rapid Transit system, was killed by a westbound Brighton Beach train at the Sands Street station, in Brooklyn last night. The collector had been talking to Patrolman Sheehan, and jumped to the track to reach the opposite platform without noticing the approaching train. Sheehan leaned to save him and was knocked flat by the front gate of the first car. Trains were switched to another. front gate of the first car. Trains were switched to another track while a car was jacked up and Hill's body extricated. His home was at 825 Madizon Street, Brooklyn.
